Supply Appeal No. 65/2006

ORDER

31/05/2012

Heard the Appellant and the Respondent State, the latter represented by learned Special P.P. The appeal has been preferred against the PDS license cancellation order dated 28/11/2006.

The case of the Appellant is that the impugned order has been passed in an arbitrary manner and is not based on evidence.

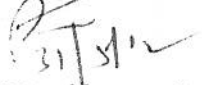

The State rebutts this contention and points out that the impugned order is reasoned, speaking and based on both facts of law.

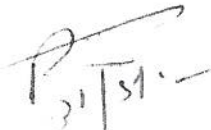

Perused the lower court records.

It is evident that the Appellant was afforded reasonable opportunities to defend himself. In fact, the show-cause reply filed by the Appellant does not address the charges with full force of evidence.

In the end, I do not find any irregularities with impugned order. The appeal is, therefore, dismissed.
